

AFFABLE THERAPY at CAMEXPO 2011

QUALITY EDUCATION AT AFFORDABLE PRICES

Affable Therapy is one of London's leading spa therapy and massage training schools. It was founded in 2007 and provides qualification courses in beauty, massage and spa therapies.

Courses Level ranges from Level 2 to Level 4 and are available from their venues in Greater London, Brighton, Bristol and Spain. There are over 40 courses to choose from.

All courses are fully accredited and endorsed by various professional bodies like International Therapy Education Council (ITEC), Federation of Holistic Therapists (FHT), Beauty Guild, etc.

Affable therapy is exhibiting at Camexpo 2011, UK's largest complementary health show. They will be showcasing their courses and provide students with opportunity to enrol on to their courses at highly competitive prices.

Key highlights of Affable Therapy Stand will be:

- Massive discounts helping therapists learn new skills.
- Ayurvedic Courses: Ayurveda means Science of Life. Ayurvedic rejuvenation therapies are increasingly becoming popular in UK. Loads of therapists are looking to train at an authentic place and enhance their skills. Affable Therapy offers authentic ayurvedic training courses and product support so that the learner feels confident in using their new skills.
- Level 4 Spa and Salon Management course: The spa industry has grown tremendously over the last 2 years. ITEC has launched its new Level 4 Spa and Salon Management Course. Affable Therapy is proud to be one of the few colleges offering this one year qualification. Affable Therapy's Greater London location has an onsite spa facility which makes it the ideal choice for learners wishing work in spas and cruise liners.
- FREE six months after course support: What makes Affable Therapy unique is the after course commitment to its learners. At no additional cost, learners are given free six months support upon graduation. This could be related to any business advice that they need, or to do with career progression or any other matter related to their therapy practice. The objective of this is to boost their confidence and help them succeed.

- FREE student membership: with leading industry organisations like FHT, CtHA, and Association for Reflexologists.
- Free Kits with selected beauty courses.

Sumita Singh, founder and principal tutor of Affable Therapy says that in the current economic climate, lots of people are turning towards complementary therapies both as customers and as therapists. It is very important to study with a training provider that nurtures you and helps you as you start this journey so that each step is a step towards success. At Affable Therapy, we not only offer quality education at affordable prices but help you once you're qualified so that you succeed in achieving your objectives.

One of the learners recently said, "A fantastic course. We have learnt things that we will use for years. Very helpful Tutor, small class size and lots of attention to detail."
